Annual Title I Meeting Tips:

In order to keep parents informed, schools

- must invite all parents of children participating in Title I Part A programs and encourage them to attend.
- Each school must document how parents were notified of the Title I Meeting. A photo of a Parent Link, marquee announcing the Annual Title I Meeting or a copy of a flyer will be collected by the Title I Program Coordinator. In a schoolwide program, this means ALL parents should be invited; in a targeted assistance program, just those parents with children participating in Title I should be invited.
- Schools must also offer a flexible number of additional parental involvement meetings, such as in the morning or evening so that as many parents as possible are able to attend.

You must be able to document the Annual Title I Meeting with:

- minutes,
- agendas,
- sign-in sheets, etc.

You may want to do more than the law requires for this meeting, especially if you often have problems with attendance.

Below are a few things to keep in mind regarding the Annual Title I Meeting:

This can be an introduction to the Title I program, a workshop, a welcome night, etc.; the format is up to you. Preferably, this meeting occurs at the beginning or in the fall of the school year. This meeting, whatever form it takes; it must be documented with minutes.

Is there two-way communication at this meeting, or is it the teacher/administrator giving information to parents about the program?

Do you involve parents in the agenda?

Do you try to get ideas from them on what this meeting should involve?

It is important to engage families as they bring ideas and thoughts about how to support student success.

This document is to facilitate the collection of parent suggestions.
